

Employer

Do not send this form to Inland Revenue. You must keep this completed IR 330 with your business records for seven years following the last wage payment you make to the employee.

1 Your details

First name/s (in full)

Family name

IRD number (8 digit numbers start in the second box. 1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8)

--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--

If you don't know your IRD number or you don't have an IRD number, call us on 0800 227 774.

Are you eligible for KiwiSaver? Check with your employer.

2 Your tax code

You must complete a separate Tax code declaration (IR 330) for each source of income

Choose only ONE tax code

Refer to the flowcharts on page 2 and then enter a tax code here.

Tax code

If you're a casual agricultural worker, shearer, shearing shedhand, recognised seasonal worker, election day worker, have a special tax code or are receiving schedular payments, refer to "Other tax code options" at the top of page 3, choose your tax code and enter it in the tax code circle.

If your tax code is "WT" write your schedular payment activity from page 4 here.

3 Your entitlement to work

I am entitled under the Immigration Act 2009 to do the work that this tax code declaration relates to (Tick the box that applies to you)

- I am a New Zealand or Australian citizen
- I hold a valid visa or permit with conditions allowing work in New Zealand

If either you or your employer need more information or have any questions about work entitlement, contact Immigration New Zealand (by phoning (09) 969 1458 from within the Auckland toll free calling area, on (04) 910 9916 from Wellington or on 0508 WORK NZ from the rest of NZ). An employer may wish to check your entitlements using the online VisaView service (www.immigration.govt.nz/visaview) or ask you to provide other evidence.

Please give this completed form to your employer. If you don't complete Questions 1, 2 and 4, your employer must deduct tax from your pay at the no-notification rate of 45 cents (plus earners' levy) in the dollar. For the no-notification rate on schedular payments see the table on page 4.

Note to employers: It is an offence to employ someone who is not entitled to work under the Immigration Act 2009. An employer has a defence if the employer did not know the person was not entitled to work, took reasonable precautions and exercised due diligence to ascertain whether the person was entitled to do the work. Relying solely on this IR 330 form does not constitute reasonable precautions or due diligence. Instead, employers may check entitlements using the online VisaView service (www.immigration.govt.nz/visaview) or by contacting Immigration New Zealand or by seeking documentary evidence.

Privacy

Meeting your tax obligations involves giving accurate information to Inland Revenue. We ask you for information so we can assess your liabilities and entitlements under the Acts we administer.

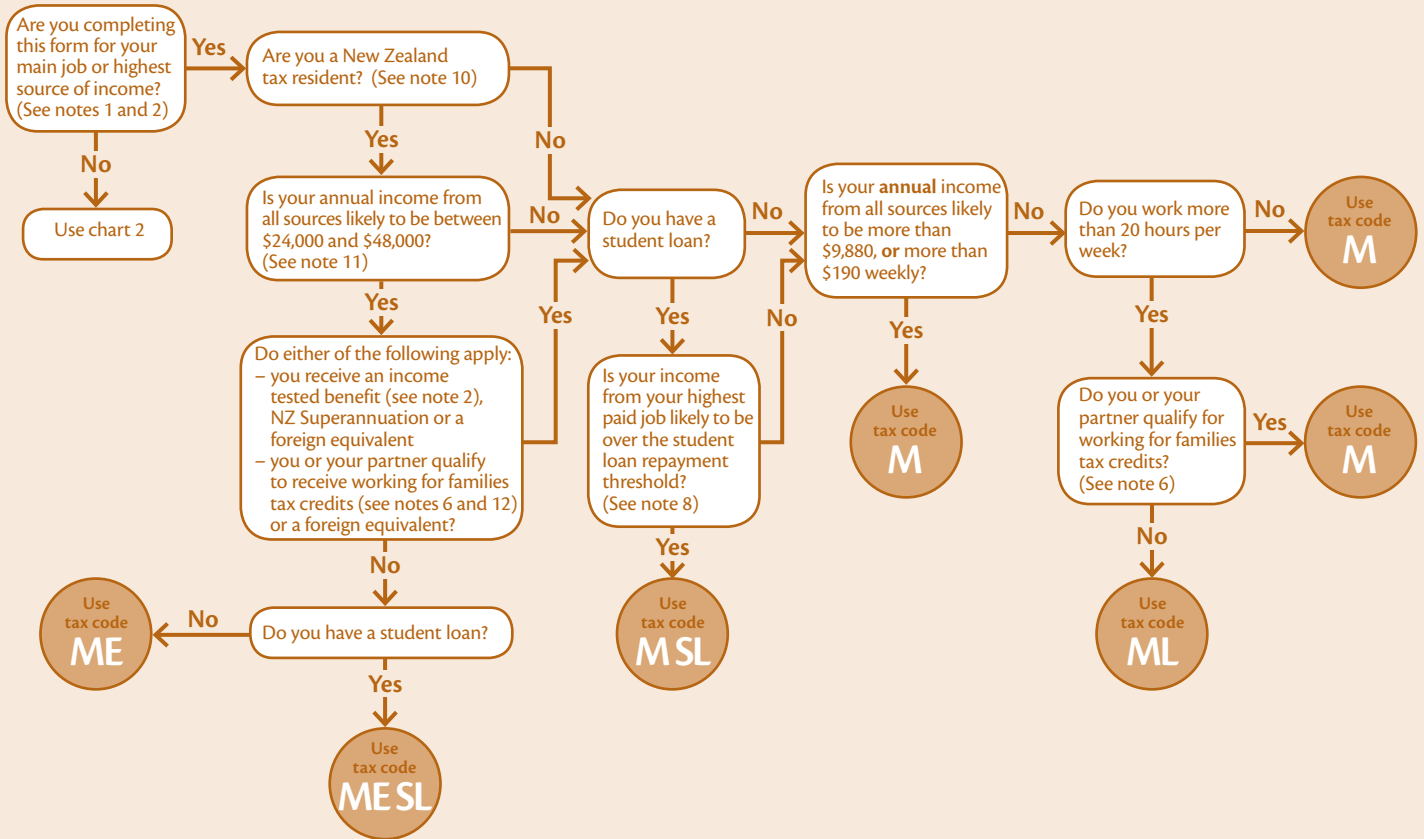

You must, by law, give us this information. Penalties may apply if you do not. We may exchange information about you with the Ministry of Social Development, Ministry of Justice, Department of Labour, Ministry of Education, New Zealand Customs Service, Accident Compensation Corporation or their contracted agencies. Information may be provided to overseas countries with which New Zealand has an information supply agreement. Inland Revenue also has an agreement to supply information to Statistics New Zealand for statistical purposes only.

You may ask to see the personal information we hold about you by calling us on 0800 377 774. Unless we have a lawful reason for withholding the information, we will show it to you and correct any errors.

* Formerly withholding payments

Choose your tax code If you're a casual agricultural worker, shearer, shearing shedhand, election day worker, have a special tax code or are receiving schedular payments DO NOT USE THIS FLOWCHART, instead refer to "Other tax code options" at the top of page 3.

Chart 1 Use this chart to select your tax code for your main job or highest source of income

When you've worked out your tax code, enter it in the tax code circle at Question 2 on page 1.

Chart 2 Use this chart to select your tax code for your second source of income

When you've worked out your tax code, enter it in the tax code circle at Question 2 on page 1.

Other tax code options

If you receive any of the following types of income you'll need to use one of the codes below.

Select one tax code and enter it in the tax code circle on page 1

CAE Enter this code if you're a casual agricultural worker, shearer or shearing shedhand (see note 9 below). See current PAYE deduction tables IR 340 or IR 341.

EDW Enter this code if you're an election day worker.

STC Enter this code if you have a Special tax code certificate (IR 23) from Inland Revenue. Please attach a copy of the certificate to this declaration form (see note 3 below).

WT Enter this code if you're receiving schedular payments—this is for contract work, not for salary or wages. All ACC personal service rehabilitation payments* which are paid by ACC are classified as schedular payments. You'll also need to find your schedular payment activity (see page 4).

NSW Only enter this code if you have a visa and/or permit under the Recognised Seasonal Employer Work Policy (see note 14 below).

* attendant care, home help, childcare, attendant care services related to training for independence, attendant care services relating to transport for independence, paid under the Injury Prevention and Rehabilitation Compensation Act 2001.

 includes accredited employers.

Notes to help you complete this form

1. "Source of income" means income such as salary, wages, a benefit, weekly accident compensation payments, New Zealand Superannuation or a student allowance.
2. If you receive a benefit (other than New Zealand Superannuation) it will be considered your highest source of income and will automatically have a tax code of "M". You must use chart 2 to select your tax code for your second source of income.
3. A special tax code is a tax deduction rate worked out to suit your individual circumstances.
You may want to get a special tax code if the regular tax codes will result in you paying either not enough or too much tax. This may happen if you have a rental property, business losses, or income that doesn't have tax deducted before you receive it. This may also happen if you receive payments from either ACC or an ACC client for providing ACC personal service rehabilitation care, and you expect to earn over $14,000 from all sources.
If you're not sure, call us on 0800 227 774 to see if a special tax code is suitable.
You can get a Special tax code/student loan special repayment rate application (IR 23BS) from www.ird.govt.nz or by calling our automated phone service, INFOexpress on 0800 257 773. Please have your IRD number handy.
4. As shown in chart 2, if you choose S SL as your tax code, you may pay more towards your student loan than you're required to. To help prevent you under or overpaying your student loan we recommend that you apply for a special repayment rate. You can get a Special tax code/student loan special repayment rate application (IR 23BS) from our website or by calling INFOexpress on 0800 257 773. For more information about special repayment rates go to www.ird.govt.nz/studentloans
5. If you already have a special repayment rate and your circumstances have changed, you'll need to call us on 0800 227 774 so we can recalculate your repayment rate and advise you of the correct tax code to use for this job.
6. Working for families tax credits is financial help for families who have children aged 18 or under who are not financially independent. How much you can get depends on:
 - how many children you have
 - how much you and your partner earn (your total family income)
 - where you get your income from.For more information about working for families tax credits go to www.ird.govt.nz
7. If you're under 19 and still at school, you must use the "M" tax code for your income.
8. If you need to know the student loan repayment threshold, go to www.ird.govt.nz/studentloans or call us on 0800 377 778.
9. Casual agricultural workers are persons engaged in casual seasonal work on a day-to-day basis, for up to three months.
10. You are a New Zealand tax resident in any of these situations:
 - you are in New Zealand for more than 183 days in any twelve-month period, or
 - you have an enduring relationship with New Zealand, or
 - you are away from New Zealand in the service of the New Zealand Government.
11. Your annual income is your total income from all sources, from 1 April to 31 March, excluding losses carried forward from a previous year. You can deduct any allowable expenses and current year losses.
12. Independent earner tax credit (IETC) is included in the ME and ME SL tax codes. You are not eligible for IETC if:
 - you receive a benefit, NZ superannuation or a foreign equivalent, or
 - you or your partner are eligible for working for families tax credits or a foreign equivalent, or
 - your annual income is less than $24,000 or over $48,000.
13. You'll need to change your tax code if your circumstances change during the year. For example:
 - you decrease your hours at a second job
 - you repay your student loan
 - your eligibility for the IETC changes.
14. Recognised seasonal workers must be employed by a registered employer from the Recognised Seasonal Employers' Scheme (see www.dol.govt.nz for details). They are generally employed in the horticulture or viticulture industries.

Note If you need help choosing your tax code please go to www.ird.govt.nz or call us on 0800 227 774.

Rate of tax deductions from schedular payments

Schedular payments are not for employees, they are for people who are independent contractors. All ACC personal service rehabilitation payments which are paid by ACC are classified as schedular payments. These payments are taxed at flat rates. If you are receiving payment for any of the types of work listed below on contract, enter the activity name in the box at Question 2 on page 1.

Your tax code will be "WT", which means you'll be required to file an IR 3 tax return at the end of the financial year. ACC clients or carers receiving ACC personal service rehabilitation payments may not be required to file an IR 3.
